The report that President Johnson of the American League had made an offer to invest $5,000 in the new Cincinnati club, which, it is said, will, be formed for the purpose of forcing John T. Brush out of the business, will surprise many close followers of the game, but it clearly demonstrates that Johnson is in hearty sympathy with Mr. Spalding. Should this move really take place, there will be nothing to the Freedman-Brush faction but a bitter dish of crow. The Boston vote would give Spalding a bona-fide majority, instead of a fictitious one, and then if Messrs. Freedman, Brush and Robison continued to be disgruntled, he could go ahead and place clubs in New York, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Working as Messrs. Freedman, Brush and Robison are, against the greater sentiment of the base ball public, it looks as though Mr. Spalding has decidedly the better of the situation, and it is only a question of time when his plans will crystalize and be formidable enough to make the opposition weaker and decide to fol-

NEW LEAGUE CIRCUIT

Spalding Arranging for Clubs in Boston, New York and Cincinnati.

The atmosphere that surrounds the National League at the present time is so thick that it can almost be cut with a knife. An authority says that Mr. Spalding is awaiting the change of mayors in Greater New York before beginning an aggressive campaign, and that it was through his wish that the injunction proceedings were continued until after the first of the year. As events are shaping themselves it would seem that Mr. Spalding has been laying his plans so that he can form a new eight-club National League circuit in a day if a split comes with the Brush-Freedman faction. Information from Cincinnati is that Judge Howard Ferris of that city has been offered a Cincinnati franchise. It is known in New York that capitalists stand ready to place clubs in that city and in Boston if need be. St. Louis is the only man-Brush faction. Of the situation the New York Sun says of trouble to come, and tried to head it off by appointing dates much earlier than is

It was a political fight between men who sought to control racing in New Jersey which broke up the sport in that state and turned race courses into farms.

Frank Farrell reiterated yesterday in New York his statement of Thursday that he alone owned the Empire City track.

FITZ MAY FIGHT JEFFRIES.

Lanky Bob Says He is the One Man

Who Can Whip the Champion.

Unless personal friends of Bob Fitzsimmons are very much mistaken there is an excellent prospect that Fitz will once more Jeffries. Jeffries should reach New York tomorrow. He has announced that he is going right after Fitzsimmons to make him fight or acknowledge that his title to the championship is without a flaw. As Fitz cannot consistently agree to the first proposition after the many cracks he has made, there is a very good chance, everything considered, that he will agree to once more meet the champion in the squared circle.

During the last few months the Horton law was in existence, when there was big ey in rapid succession, and made a startling offer to knock Jeffries out in short order, which offer the champion, for reasons of his own, declined to accept. Then Fitzsimmons retired, or, as he expresses it, "I died with the Horton law."

Fitz has time and again told his friends that he is the one man in the world that can beat Jeffries. He insists he was doped Fitzsimmons' friends argue that if Jef-fries is as anxious to meet Fitz as he pro-fesses to be, he will doubtless be willing to guarantee Fitz a big slice of the purse, win or lose. Thus Fitzsimmons will have an opportunity to get revenge for the doings of June 9, 1890, at Coney Island, and at the
